To our Firefighters – our brothers and sisters:

No words can ever express the sadness we, your brothers and sisters in your extended family, feel as a result of the tragedy that took two in your family from their loved ones, their fellow firefighters and our community.

What they did and what you do for us each time you answer that call is something too few understand and most too often forget.

They, like all members of our families, will forever live on in our memories, our thoughts and in our prayers.

What is truly sad and anger provoking is that too many of those now expressing feelings of sadness and expressions of sorrow will too soon forget the sacrifices our two brothers made and that you make everyday.

In their honor and, indeed, all our brothers and sisters who gave their lives and also those who suffered great harm, let us not allow this and your sacrifices to be forgotten.

We are with you in this endeavor, and share your grief for your lost brothers and their families. Let us not let the community forget.

If we can be of any help, all you need to do is call. We will be there.

In Solidarity,
On behalf of all Buffalo Teachers

Philip Rumore
